NASPO ValuePoint is a cooperative purchasing program that facilitates public procurement solicitations and agreement using a lead state model. They are a non-profit organization dedicated to providing State Chief Procurement Officers with the support and procurement resources they need.

Since 1993, NASPO ValuePoint has been the cooperative purchasing arm of NASPO (the National Association of State Procurement Officials) The NASPO ValuePoint Cooperative Purchasing Organization (formerly WSCA-NASPO) provides the highest standard of excellence in public cooperative contracting. By using the leadership and expertise of all states and their collective purchasing power this delivers best value, reliable, competitively sourced contracts, encouraging, fostering and guiding the nation's most significant public contract cooperative. NASPO ValuePoint is a unified cooperative which aggregates the demand of all states, the District of Columbia, organized US territories, their political subdivisions and other eligible entities.

WSCA

The Western States Contracting Alliance (WSCA) was the group of 15 western states in NASPO that conducted cooperative purchasing. Despite having a separate name, the WSCA cooperative was a NASPO program. It was the oldest of NASPO's cooperative alliances and began in 1993. The current NASPO Cooperative began in 2006. In 2013, as WSCA became more successful and cooperative efforts grew, NASPO consolidated its two cooperatives and created the single member, non-profit, limited liability company, the NASPO ValuePoint Cooperative Purchasing Organization, This meet increasing needs for resource assistance in cooperative procurement among all states nationally.
